

Houston County native Molly Hazlett is crowned Miss Texas Saturday, July 7 in the annual beauty pageant.

A native of Crockett named Miss Texas

Molly Hazlett, 20, a native of Crockett and Houston County, was crowned Miss Texas 2007 in the Miss Texas Pageant Saturday, July 7 in Fort Worth. Her platform was "Just Say No" Drug Education in Schools.

She was competing as Miss Longview this year. Two years ago she finished 2nd runner up and last year she was 1st runner up.

Miss Hazlett, a junior at Sam Houston State University, is the daughter of Joel and Sherri Hazlett of Centerville and Crockett and the granddaughter of Don and Marilyn Harrison and Robert and Jane Hazlett and the great-granddaughter of Doris Salisbury, Bay Harrison and Iva Smith, all of Crockett.