

Military News

Leslie Deckard

The Department of the Navy has awarded Petty Officer Leslie Deckard the Navy and Marine Corps Achievement Medal for her service while deployed to Expeditionary Logistics Unit One in Sembach, Germany from January-July 2006.

"Petty Officer Deckard's managerial ability, personal initiative and unswerving devotion to duty reflected credit upon herself and were in keeping with the highest traditions of the United States Naval Service," the report stated.

Ms. Deckard is stationed at Naval Air Station Whidbey Island, Washington. She has previously been deployed to Japan and Germany and is currently in the midst of her third overseas deployment.

A 2000 graduate of Crockett High School, she is the daughter of Darrell and Bonnie Deckard of Crockett and Mary Deckard of Anchorage, Alaska.