

Yvonne Lynn Scarborough Dorger

Yvonne Lynn Scarborough Dorger passed away October 18, 2007.

The only daughter of Guinn and Joyce Scarborough, Yvonne was born in Houston on July 9, 1951. She was a graduate of Jones High School, a member of the Commodores Drill Team and later attended Sam Houston State University where she met her husband, Lee.

They were married on July 3, 1970. As a young U.S. Air Force officer/pilot, Lee swept her away on a journey to far off places where she made many life-long friends. She was soon blessed with two fine sons, Aaron and David, who were the light of her life.

Yvonne Lynn Scarborough Dorger

As a member of Christ United Methodist Church in Sugar Land, Yvonne was active in the music ministry and worked the sound booth.

She is survived by her parents Mr. and Mrs. Guinn Scarborough; husband, Lee; son, Aaron and his fiancée, Lauren Evans; son, David; brother, Glenn Scarborough and family.

Yvonne was a positive caring person who loved to entertain and was a best friend to everyone who met her. She was generous and always had a smile.

Memorial contributions may be made to Christ United Methodist Church, 3300 Austin Parkway, Sugar Land, Texas 77479, where a celebration of her life was held on October 28, 2007 at 3 p.m.