

JANIS MARIE BAKER FULTON

Mrs. Janis Marie Baker Fulton, age 70 of Grapeland passed away Sunday, July 1, 2007. Mrs. Fulton was born September 11, 1936 in Bay City to Frank James and Alice Callaway Baker. Mrs. Fulton graduated from Bay City High School in 1955 and entered Sam Houston State University that fall. Soon after the fall semester began she met John Fulton. They married on May 28, 1957. Over the next four years she finished a Bachelor of Science Degree in Elementary Education and had three children. Mrs. Fulton taught first and second grade for 27 years in Grapeland and Pasadena. In 1964 Mrs. Fulton and John bought a piece of property in Percilla that they named "See-More and Do-Little Ranch, Inc." The last 14 years of her life were happily spent there.

Survivors include her husband of 50 years, John Fulton; children Eileen Maas and husband Steve, Dianne Hess and husband Michael, David Fulton and Debbie Crenshaw; grandchildren Brandyne Wegman and husband John, Stacy Taylor and husband Toby, Laura Hess, Erich Schoeffler, Amy Fulton, Ryan Fulton and Madison Maas; brothers Frank Baker and wife Tommy, of Bay City, Aubrey Baker, of Galveston, D K Baker and wife Joan, of Pearland; sister Janet Gilbert and husband Gerald, of Grand Saline.

Funeral Services for Mrs. Janis Marie Baker Fulton were held Tuesday, July 3, at 1:00 p.m. at the First United Methodist Church in Grapeland with Dr. Jack Shoultz, the Rev. Bill Denmon and Chuck Gossett officiating. Interment followed in the Parker Cemetery.

Pallbearers were Phil Barnes, Ben Childress, Chad Goolsby, Mitchell Huff, Bill Mehrens, and Harry Pridgen. Honorary pallbearers will be Charlie Brown, Herbert Franks, Faron Griffin, Charles Ingram, Kirby Jett, Charlie Perry, Robert Stephens, and Don Weeks.

Bailey & Foster Funeral