

EVANGELINE MURCHISON GLASS

Mrs. Evangeline Murchison Glass, age 86 of Crockett, passed away Sunday, April 1, 2007 in the East Texas Medical Center-Crockett. Mrs. Glass was born to Stella Hollingsworth Murchison and Murdoch Daniel Murchison in Grapeland on August 22, 1920. Mrs. Glass was the seventh child after six brothers, whom she loved dearly.

Mrs. Glass was educated at TSCW in Denton, and graduated with a Bachelor of Music from Texas University in Austin.

Mrs. Glass was married and devoted to Edward B. T. Glass in 1944. Mrs. Glass volunteering in Albuquerque included the Cancer Society, Carrie Tingley Festivals, Keep New Mexico Beautiful and 18 years playing the piano at an alzheimer facility which gave her great joy. In 2003, after the death of her husband, Ed, she moved to Crockett.

Mrs. Glass became a member of the Houston County Historical Society, the Wilma Foote Organ Club, and the Dinner and a Book Club. Mrs. Glass occasionally played at the First Christian Church, the First United Methodist Church, and for Whitehall Nursing Center. Mrs. Glass loved her time in Crockett and made many wonderful friends.

In Mrs. Glass own words: "My wish for all is an awareness of the beauty around you, cherished friends and those in need. Hear music in all things. Adios"
