

DOROTHY JORDAN

Mrs. Dorothy Jordan, age 91 of Kemah, passed away Wednesday, August 13, 2008 in Kemah. Mrs. Jordan was born January 29, 1917 in Lovelady. Mrs. Jordan loved fishing at her favorite place on Lake Livingston and she spent countless hours with her needlepoint.

Survivors include her sisters Betty Lewis, of Houston, Nell Amy, of Crockett and Juanita Aguillard and husband Marshall, of Okeechobee, Fla.; two daughters Helen Ekstrom and Joyce Flanagan and husband Jim, all of Kemah; four grandchildren Ken Flanagan and wife Tereasa, of Hempstead, Janet Clark and husband Tim, of Santa Fe., Skipper Flanagan and wife Dana, of League City and Pam Hodgson and husband Jim, of Santa Fe.; eight great-grandchildren Jeannie, Christy, Timmy, Jimmy, Jessica, Jake, Reece and Max; one great-great-grandchild 8-month-old Cheyenne Nicole with Trent Lane arriving in November; and many friends who loved her dearly.

Preceded in death by her husband Dick Jordan; three sisters Lucille Bryant, Lavern Johnson and Addie Willingham; and one brother Charlie McCullar.

Funeral Services for Mrs. Dorothy Jordan were held Saturday, August 16, at 10:00 a.m. in Trinity Funeral Home in Trinity. Interment followed in the Weldon Cemetery.

Pallbearers were Jim Hodgson, Jimmy Hodgson, Tim Clark, Timmy Clark, Ken Flanagan and Skipper Flanagan.