

W. A. MONK JR.

Mr. W. A. Monk, Jr. age 82 of Tyler, passed away June 29, 2008 in Crockett. Mr. Monk was born September 20, 1925 in Dallas to the late William Alvin and Bertha Tidwell Monk Sr.

Mr. Monk was employed and retired from Union Pacific Railroad. Mr. Monk was a member of West Erwin Church of Christ and numerous Genealogical Societies.

Survivors include his nephews Bruce Monk and wife Lawanna and Louis A. "Binky" Monk and wife Debbie, all of Lovelady; great-nieces and great-nephews Mandy Wilson and husband Greg, Kyle Monk and wife Carol, and Brandon Monk, all of Lovelady, Cayla Ables and husband Cody of Tyler; great-great-nephews, Benjamin Monk and Lane Wilson.

Preceded in death by his parents William Alvin and Bertha Tidwell Monk, Sr.; brother and sister-in-law Benjamin David Monk and wife Doris.

Funeral Services for W. A. Monk Jr. were held Wednesday July 2, at 10:00 a.m. at Lloyd James Funeral Home Chapel in Tyler with the Rev. Scott Matthews officiating. Interment followed in Sunset Memorial Gardens Gilmer.

Pallbearers were Greg Wilson, Cody Ables, Kyle Monk, Brandon Monk, Randy Monk and Ronnie Ferguson.

If desired memorials may be made West Erwin Church of Christ 420 West Erwin Street, Tyler, Texas 75702.

Lloyd James Funeral Home