

MATTHEW SOLOMON

Mr. Matthew Solomon was born June 23, 1959 to Emmett W. Solomon and Jan Goodman Solomon and passed away January 25, 2008 in Houston, Texas.

Mr. Solomon was a graduate of Lovelady High School and then attended Baylor University majoring in engineering for two years prior to coming to SHSU to complete his BA degree in radio/TV and minoring in psychology. Mr. Solomon was a clinical case manager for UTMB at the Pam Lychner Unit in Humble.

Mr. Solomon was a very intelligent man who loved reading books and loved history. Mr. Solomon was very devoted to helping others. Outdoors and sports were part of his life but his advocacy was drama. This allowed him to participate at the Renaissance Festival and as a student at SHSU, he played the lead in a production at the SHSU Theater Department in Little Abner. Also, he was a radio announcer at the radio station on SHSU campus. One of the other joys in his life was playing the coronet and playing with the Navy Band.

Survivors include his parents W. Solomon and Jan Goodman; brother Mark Solomon and wife Laurie; nieces Amanda Paige Solomon and Stephanie Rennee Solomon; nephew Stephen Michael Solomon; and many other family members, friends, and people he has helped along the travel of life.
