

RONNIE COOK

Mr. Ronnie Cook, age 55 of Porter Springs, passed away Thursday, March 12, 2009 in the East Texas Medical Center-Crockett. He was born January 3, 1954 in Houston County, Texas and had lived most of his lifetime in Porter Springs. Mr. Cook was a veteran of the United States Navy. He was a great father to his three daughters and a great friend to many.

Mr. Cook enjoyed riding four wheelers and getting as muddy as possible, but enjoyed fishing even more. He always was a kidder and a storyteller. Mr. Cook enjoyed making people laugh. It is hard to say goodbye to someone the whole community knew and loved, but he will never be forgotten, he will always be remembered as their "little buddy" who would give you the shirt off his back.

Survivors include three daughters Jennifer Ann Cook, of Crockett, Heather Jean Cook and son-in-law Neil Allen Turner, of Lovelady, Marlena Opal Cook, of Livingston; two sisters Brenda Mae Harris, of Dallas, Delois Almond and husband Otis, of Lufkin; one brother Danny Ross Cook and wife Mary, of Lufkin; numerous nieces, nephews and other relatives; special friends Danny Hughes, Troy McCanless, Russell Hill and Richie Hester; numerous nieces, nephews, other relatives and too many friends to list.

Preceded in death by his parents Martin A. and Mary Cook.

Funeral Services for Mr. Ronnie Cook were held Sunday, March 15, 2009 at 2:00 p.m. in the Porter Springs Baptist Church with the Rev. Carl Standley officiating. Military Graveside Service followed in the Porter Springs Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the Leukemia Foundation, 5005 Mitchelldale Suite 115, Houston, Texas 77092-7230.
