

The Crockett Courier.

"Quality, Not Quantity."

CROCKETT, TEXAS, JANUARY 17, 1918.

Volume XVIII—No. 52.

Entered as Second Class Matter at Crockett Post-Office.

Col. Sheridan Dead.

Col. W. N. Sheridan, perhaps Houston county's oldest citizen, died at his home at Sheridan, in the northwestern part of the county, Saturday morning at 8 o'clock. Col. Sheridan was in his ninety-second year. He was almost a native of Houston county, coming to this county when less than a year old.

He was the father of John R. Sheridan, a citizen of Crockett until removed by death a few years ago; also of Chas. E. Sheridan, now residing at Elkhart. Besides the son at Elkhart, three daughters who are yet living are left. Twice married, he outlived both wives.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at the home of the deceased and interment followed in the private cemetery on the Sheridan estate. Mrs. J. R. Sheridan and family of Crockett attended the funeral.

Col. Sheridan was a member of the Christian church and the services were conducted by the Christian pastor. Many friends and relatives gathered to attend the funeral.

---

Col. Sheridan always took a deep interest in the social, political and commercial affairs of the country. He was a leader in politics and a democrat of the old school. He was no less a leader in the affairs of the church and business worlds. His going marks the passing of a splendid citizen and pioneer.

---