

PAMELA KAY ADAIR

Ms. Pamela Kay Adair, age 50 of Austin, passed away Saturday, September 16, 2006 in Austin after a lengthy battle with cancer. Ms. Adair was born December 1, 1955 in Baytown to Wera Wanda Leonard Herrera and Henry Grady Adair.

Ms. Adair was raised in Baytown and graduated from Robert E. Lee High School. After high school, she received a scholarship to attend Kilgore School of Nursing where she earned her LVN license. Ms. Adair worked for several years for Good Shepherd Hospital in Longview.

Ms. Adair had lived in Austin for the past eight years and was active in the Assembly of God Church. Ms. Adair loved taking care of people and enjoyed her work. Most of all she loved her family.

Survivors include her loving daughter Katy Michelle Adair, of Madisonville; Katy's father Tommy Clevenger, of Houston; mother Wera Wanda Leonard Herrera, of Madisonville; two sisters and brothers-in-law Maurita and Cleve Turner, of Midway and Wanda and Chuck Siems, of Crockett; two nieces Lewanda Sullivan and husband Mike, of Houston and Tiffany Turner, of Madisonville.

Preceded in death by her step-father Frank Herrera and father and step-mother Grady and Oleta Adair.

Funeral Services for Ms. Pamela Kay Adair were held Tuesday, September 19, at 2:30 p.m. at the Madisonville Funeral Home Chapel with Lanier Stevens officiating. Interment followed in the Antioch Cemetery near Lovelady.

Pallbearers were Jimmy Cook, John Williams, James Caldwell, James Jeffries, Bruce Thacker and Reed Reynolds.

Honorary Pallbearers were Cecil Jack Starns, Phillip Grisham and James Graley.

Madisonville Funeral Home