

MAGGIE MAE DAVIS

Mrs. Maggie Mae Davis, age 88 of Pennington, passed away Thursday, November 30, 2006 in the Woodland Heights Medical Center in Lufkin.

Mrs. Davis was born, November 13, 1918 in Ratcliff, Houston County and had lived most of her life in Houston and Trinity County. Mrs. Davis was a dedicated homemaker and wife to her husband of 68 years. Mrs. Davis was a member of the Piney Creek Baptist Church. Mrs. Davis will always be remembered as the "rock of the family", the cement that held us together, and the strength that all of us leaned on at some point in our lives. Mrs. Davis was the person that raised us with love and respect, and taught us kindness, decency, and responsibility. Mrs. Davis was also the person that could swing a mean shoe at your rear end if you failed in those teachings. Some of her best times were spent with her husband, Oren, and her kids. Whether it was cooking a Thanksgiving dinner, camping or fishing, making mayhaw jelly, pulling weeds in the garden, cleaning the house, or entertaining the preacher, she was always moving, working, and laughing.

Survivors include her daughter Ella M. Trevathan and husband Bill, of Groveton; son Harmon E. Davis, of Riverside; son Sam D. Davis, of Katy; 16 grandchildren; 20 great-grandchildren; nine great-great-grandchildren; brothers David Hendry, of Cleveland, Dale Hendry, of Houston; numerous nieces, nephews and many friends.

Preceded in death by her husband of 68 years, Oren Davis; father and mother, Harmon Hendry and Liddie Glover; her beloved stepmother Mary Etta Hendry; son James D. Davis; grandson Rodney L. Kee; daughter-in-law Jeannie Davis; four brothers and two sisters.

Funeral services for Mrs. Maggie Mae Davis were held Sunday, December 3, at 2:00 p.m. in the Callaway-Allee Memorial Chapel with the Rev. Terry Gibson and the Rev. Linley Ham officiating. Interment following in the Hill Cemetery.

Pallbearers were grandsons Samuel Davis, Donald Pugsley, Roy Davis, Michael Kee, Shawn Pugsley, Brock McClure and Gerald Davis.
